

Inspired Harradine wins the Club Championship

MICHAEL Harradine followed a superb opening 66 with a 74 to win the Club Championship with a 5-under-par score for the tournament.

On Friday he produced his 7-under par 66 over the Faldo course that included no less than eight birdies and just one dropped shot on the 17th, the tough 218-yard par-3.

This was an amateur course record from the blue tees of the Faldo layout which measures 6,868-yards.

He took an eight shot lead into the final round over the Majlis course from defending champion Pontus Fredriksson and he continued his consistency into day two by dropping just one shot on the opening nine of the Majlis.

He then returned in 38 strokes to win comfortably from Fredriksson with the reigning Sheikh Rashid champion, Daniel Hendry, taking third place after rounds of 79 and 72.

Rohit Gupta won the Division 'A' title with a net 146 total, four ahead of Peter Mackenzie while Suresh Shewakramani topped Division 'B' with a 149, two clear of Arun Khehar.

Harradine on song in BMW - Rivoli Monthly Medal

MICHAEL Harradine was at his consistent best again to win both the gross and net prizes in the second edition of the BMW - Rivoli Monthly Medal.

The scratch golfer fired a gross 74 over the Faldo course and his net 74 earned him the top honours in Division 'A' (hcp 0-10) after a countback win over Rohit Gupta with Lionel Smith taking third.

Division B (hcp 11-20) was keenly contested with Peter Mackenzie signing for a 3-under-par 70 to clinch the top prize by two shots from Naveed Kamal with Brian Edwards on 74. Prem Amarnani clinched Division 'C' (hcp 21-34) with an excellent two under par 71.

BMW and Rivoli have teamed up to sponsor the 22 Monthly Medals across both Emirates Golf Club and Dubai Creek Golf & Yacht Club.
