Harradine ends his season in winning style

By Staff Reporter

Michael Harradine added another feather to his cap when he won the season-ending EGF Order of Merit Championship by two shots at The Els Club, Dubai.

The talented golfer, who won the 2011-2012 Men's Order of Merit (gross) with a tally of 268.8 points, shot gross rounds of 73 and 74 for a three-over-par total of 147 to beat his closest rival Khalif Yousuf by two shots.

Craig Forrest settled for third a shot further back on a gross 150.

The ladies' division, in contrast, produced a dramatic twist to the script with Serifa D'Souza, who had finished 13th on the Ladies Order of Merit, taking the honours with a 36-hole score of 164, four shots ahead of Kim Chiag and eight ahead of third-placed Sandra Grenet.

The men's Order of Merit winner Harradine and Yousuf will get special invitations to compete in the Singapore Men's Amateur Open Championship later this year.

The winners of this season's Ladies Order of Merit title, Sana Tufail, and the OOM Championship, D'Souza, will also receive a similar trip overseas.

All top 20 men and ladies players on their respective Orders of Merit, along with the leading 20 junior players, were invited by the Emirates Golf Federation to compete in this new season-ending competition, which has replaced the Scratch Matchplay Championship.

Connor Keegan won the Junior Division with back-to-back rounds of 75 for a 36-hole gross total of 150, beating Eoin Cunifee (158) and Rayhan Thomas (159).

The EGF honoured ace Sana Tufail with the Junior of the Year award. Bilal Belaid received the Most Improved Junior prize while Daniel Hendry walked away with the Best Performance of the Year award.
