

Swiss amateur Harradine shines

January 5

Swiss amateur Michael Harradine fired an eight-under-par 64 to share the second round lead with Sejun Yoon of the United States and Varanyu Rattanaphiboonkij of Thailand at the Qualifying School Section B on Thursday.

Harradine, Yoon (66) and Varanyu, who posted a sparkling 63, tied for the lead on 14-under-par 130 at the Suvarnabhumi Golf & Country Club.

Junhyeok Park of Korea was a further shot back while Janne Kaske of Finland, an Asian Development Tour (ADT) regular, was among those bunched in tied fifth place as he aims to finish inside the top-26 and ties to qualify for the Final Stage next week.

At the Windsor Park Golf Club, Japan's Kento Nakai produced a five-under-par 67 to lead by one shot on nine-under-par 135.

Englishman Steve Parry was in second place while Youngjea Byun of Korea, Kookhyan Kim, Victor Osterby of Denmark and Jeffrey Kang of the United States shared third. The top-25 and ties from Windsor move on to the Final Stage.
