

HARRADINE ECLIPSES THOMAS IN MEN'S OPEN

MICHAEL Harradine fired an excellent two-day total of net 144 to win the Men's Open by two strokes from promising youngster Rayhan Thomas. Harradine opened with a 70 to share the lead with Ahmad Skaik, two clear of Thomas with Christoger Rahm four strokes further back. On day two the scoring was much tougher and Harradine closed the door on Thomas with a 74 while Skaik dropped down into fourth place after carding an 82. Rahm finished in third place with a second round 77 and a 151 tally.

The net champion was Sidney De Souza, ahead of Christoph Hager in second place with Sinar Suraj in third.
