

Qatari Quintuple

Doha Golf Club is the fifth and final 'International Swing' venue in the desert

By Harry Grimshaw

The 27th Edition of the Commercial Bank Qatar Masters will mark the fifth event on the bounce in the Middle East, and the fifth of eight events in the 'International Swing' on the 2024 Race to Dubai.

The tournament, which was won by Finland's Sami Välimäki in 2023, will take place from February 8-11, 2024 at the Peter Harradine designed Doha Golf Club, as it returns to its traditional date in the early part of the year with the field competing for the US$2,500,000 prize pool.

The event has been a staple on the DP World Tour schedule for over 25 years, with the first edition being won by Scotland's Andrew Coltart in 1998, with a host of names having engraved their names on the pearl trophy such as two-time winners Paul Lawrie, Adam Scott and Branden Grace. G
